

NOAH BECKER

Assistant Director, Prime Advocacy

Noah Becker joined Prime Advocacy in the spring of 2016 after working on Capitol Hill for Congressman Jason Smith (MO-08). He brings on a detailed understanding of how offices function and best methods to scheduling constituent meetings. Noah is originally from Springfield, IL and is a graduate of the University of Missouri-Columbia where he studied Political Science and Sociology. He currently resides in Washington, DC where he enjoys volunteering on campaigns and getting involved with the Illinois and Missouri State Societies.